8. HOW LONG DO WE KEEP THIS INFORMATION ABOUT YOU?

8.1. We keep information in accordance with our document retention policy. Retention periods are in line with the length of time we need to keep your personal information in order to manage and administer your contract of employment, carry out our statutory functions or public interest tasks, establish or defend legal claims, or ensure the success of any of our legitimate interests. They also take into account our need to meet any legal, statutory and regulatory obligations. These reasons can vary from one piece of information to the next. In all cases our need to use your personal information will be reassessed on a regular basis and information which is no longer required will be anonymised or deleted.

9. AUTOMATED DECISION-MAKING

9.1. Automated decision-making is when a computer or similar electronic system uses personal information to make decisions about people without any human involvement. Profiling involves collecting various pieces of information about a person in order to analyse or evaluate certain aspects relating to that person or to make predictions about them (for example, how that person may behave or what their preferences are). Automated decision-making does not have to involve profiling, though it often will.

9.2. We do not use your personal information in automated decision-making, including profiling (i.e. we do not create profiles or make decisions about you based solely on automated decision-making without human involvement). If that changes, we will tell you.

10.3. Please note that some of these rights are only available in certain circumstances and may be subject to legal exemptions.

10.4. There are legitimate reasons why we may refuse your information rights request. For example:

- the right to erasure does not apply when the use of the data is necessary in order to comply with a legal obligation; to establish or defend a legal claim; or to carry out a task in the public interest;
- the right to portability does not apply when the lawful basis for processing is legal obligation, vital interests, public task or legitimate interests;
