

Principles of Working with Individuals with Learning Disabilities TQUK Certificate level 2

Course Overview

This qualification will provide you with a comprehensive understanding of issues surrounding different types of learning disabilities and how they might affect individuals in their daily lives. Students will explore the reasons for learning disabilities and the proportion of the population for which the cause goes unknown. Personalisation and personal budgets are also looked at making this course not only ideal for social care professionals but for carers and family members of those with a learning disability. On average the course takes 14 weeks to complete. Time frame depends on the time you have available and your prior knowledge. Working online, you are supplied with all the information required to complete the course. The assessments are made up of questions asking you to describe, explain, identify or list information. To be able to pass this qualification answers must be in your own words, using sentences and paragraphs.

What you will learn

This course consists of the following six mandatory units: Understanding the context of supporting individuals with learning disabilities Principles of safeguarding and protection in health and social care Introduction to personalisation in social care Principles of positive risk-taking for individuals with disabilities Introductory awareness of autistic spectrum conditions Principles of supporting individuals with a learning disability to access healthcare. After enrolment you are given 3 weeks for each submission, but if you require longer please contact the Distance Learning Team and they will happily agree an extension with you. Once you have signed up to the course you will receive a welcome email from Equal, our online learning platform. On there you will see a guidance video explaining how the platform works and you will find your initial submission dates there too. This is a distance learning course, meaning all work is completed from home. You do not attend any classes. However, this doesn't mean you can't access support. We have a team of dedicated tutors available to provide any support you might need along the way.

Entry Requirements

You must be over 19. You are asked to describe what you hope to achieve from the course during enrolment.
