

Awareness of Bullying in Children and Young People Level 2 Certificate

Course Overview

This is an online short course that will give you a qualification in the Awareness of bullying in children and young people. You will have the support of a tutor and will receive feedback for each submission. You will explore the many forms that bullying can take, how to recognise bullying and what action you can take to stop it. Importantly the course looks at why people might become bully's and who you can support the potential bully

What you will learn

The course consists of the following 4 units.
Principles of bullying.
Recognising bullying in children and young people.
Action to be taken when a child or young person is being bullied.
Understand government guidelines for bullying.
Content includes the long term effects of bullying, what cyber bullying is and how the Equality Act supports victims and what government and Ofsted guidance says about bullying.

Entry Requirements

You need to be over 19 have lived in the EU for the past 3 years and currently live in England.

Course Fees

0.00

Course Progression

We have a huge choice of distance learning courses available at both Level 2 and 3. At the end of your course, your tutor may suggest a suitable option for you or you can contact the distance learning team to advise you on the courses available. We also have a careers team available via phone email or in person who can help to plan a career pathway for you.

What Happens Next

Click on the apply now button to fill out the online application. You will then be sent a short initial assessment to complete to ensure this is the right course for you. Once this is confirmed you will be sent a text and an email to enable you to complete the enrolment.

Course Details

Course Code	P00088
Start Date	01/08/2025
Study Hours	Distance Learning
Duration	6
Campus	Distance Learning
Level	2

Apply Here