

English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) Highfields

Course Overview

This course is for students whose first language is not English. You will be able to study Reading, Writing or Speaking Listening at either Entry One, Entry Two, Entry Three, Level One or Level Two. This course is available at various times of the week. You may be able to take an accredited exam at the end of the course.

What you will learn

This course follows the Adult ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages) Core Curriculum helping students to operate and achieve or work towards a Reading, Writing and/or Speaking Listening qualification at national ESOL standards. You will learn how to improve your English language skills using various techniques. This course is part-time so it can fit around your current learning or personal commitments.

Entry Requirements

There are no formal entry requirements You will be able to apply online. You may also have an initial assessment interview to ascertain if you are operating at the required language level.

How you will be assessed

You will be required to take or work towards an accredited exam at the end of the course either Entry One, Entry Two, Entry Three, Level One or Level Two

Course Progression

Your tutor will advise you on progression. You can progress to further study a higher level ESOL course or another course at Leicester College. You will have the opportunity to study at a higher level or to take classes in a different mode. Careers Information, advice and guidance is also available at Leicester College.

Course Details

Course Code M00005

Start Date Various

Study Hours Part Time

Duration Various

Apply Here