

Acting (Intermediate)

Course Overview

This exciting 7 week course, will take place in the Abbey Park Campus Theatre. The Intermediate Acting: Refining the Craft course is designed for adults who have completed our beginners' acting course and are looking to further develop their acting skills. This course delves deeper into acting techniques, character development, and scene work. Each week, participants will engage in more advanced exercises, scene studies, and character analysis to refine their craft.

What you will learn

Over the 7 weeks, the course aims to take participants to the next level of their acting journey. It offers a comprehensive exploration of advanced acting techniques, character development, and ensemble work, ultimately preparing students for more challenging acting opportunities and roles in the future. You will be introduced to a new theatre practitioner and will study one of their works.

Entry Requirements

The entry requirements are that you must have completed our 7 week 'Beginners Acting Course' and be over 19 years of age. You also need to have an interest in acting and performing or gaining skills that would help when presenting to people.

How you will be assessed

This is a practical course with no exams and no coursework. However, in discussion with your tutor, you will be set targets that need to be completed by the end of the course.

Course Progression

Upon completion of this short course, you can progress on to any of the other short courses on offer at Leicester College. To find out more, please speak to your tutor about the options available towards the end of your course, as well as our Careers Advisors at the College, who can help and guide you with your next steps.

What Happens Next
