

Contemporary Fusion Dance Class

Course Overview

Explore contemporary dance styles, with a lyrical twist. This short course is aimed at dancers who have some dance experience looking to strengthen their contemporary skills in a fun and dynamic contemporary fusion class. Classes will focus on developing and strengthening techniques and learning exciting performance phrases. This course is perfect for those looking to refresh their contemporary practice, develop their fitness levels through contemporary dance and develop their professional practice for teaching and performance. Suitable for those looking to pursue a full-time dance course, those already in training, local graduates and dance artists.

What you will learn

Classes will focus on the development of technical and performance skills in the contemporary style, drawing on lyrical and release techniques. Classes will follow a similar structure in each week and material will develop in complexity and pace. Classes will be led by Demi Essex and visiting guests within our professional dance studio at Abbey Park Campus. Please wear suitable loose clothing for classes and bring water with you.

Entry Requirements

Participants must be aged 15 years and over with some dance experience. Classes will allow for those with less confidence to work at a slower pace, whilst challenging those with more technique and experience. Suitable for those looking to pursue a full-time dance course, those already in training, local graduates and dance artists.

How you will be assessed

There are no assessments.

Course Fees
