

Award in Health and Safety in Construction Level 1

Course Overview

This course is designed for students working in, or aspiring to work in the construction industry. Its objective is to prepare learners for employment in construction, giving learners the knowledge required to undertake their jobs safely. Successful learners who also complete the CITB Operatives Health, Safety and Environment knowledge test can apply for the CSCS Labourer's card.

What you will learn

The course covers:

- The principles of risk assessment for maintaining and improving health and safety at work
- The importance of safe manual handling in the workplace
- The importance of working safely at height in the workplace
- Risks to health within a construction environment
- The Importance of working safely around plant and equipment.

Entry Requirements

To register for this qualification, students are required to meet the following entry requirement:

- Demonstrate Entry Level 3 or higher in English literacy.

Course Progression

This qualification is designed for learners working in, or aspiring to work in, the construction industry.

Successful learners who also complete the CITB Operatives Health, Safety and Environment knowledge test fulfil the requirements to apply for the CSCS Labourer's card.

Upon successful completion of this qualification, learners may wish to continue their development by undertaking one of the following qualifications:

- Level 1 Construction Skills
- Level 2 Award in Health and Safety within the Workplace (RQF)
- Level 2 Plumbing
- Level 2 Electrical
- Level 2 Site Carpentry

Course Details

Course Code P00736

Start Date Various

Study Hours Part Time

Duration 1 week

Level 1

Apply Here