

BTEC National Diploma in Sports Coaching and Development Level 3

Course Overview

The BTEC Level 3 Diploma in Sports Coaching and Development is perfect for people who are passionate about sport and want to build a career in coaching, teaching, or sports development. This two-year qualification combines practical, hands-on experience with theoretical study, helping learners develop key skills in leadership, communication, and teamwork. Throughout the course, students gain real-world experience in coaching and sport environments, preparing them for progression into higher education, apprenticeships, or employment within the sport and leisure industry.

What you will learn

In your first year, you will explore a wide range of engaging and practical topics designed to build a strong foundation for a successful career in the sports and fitness industry. Through a mix of classroom learning and hands-on experience, you will develop essential skills in coaching, health and wellbeing, event organisation, and understanding careers and self-employment opportunities within the sector. These experiences will help you gain confidence, teamwork abilities, and practical knowledge that will support your progression into more advanced study or employment.

In your second year, you will build on the skills and knowledge developed in Year 1, focusing on more advanced aspects of sport and coaching. You will gain practical experience in applied coaching, and sports development. This combination of theory and hands-on learning helps prepare you for higher education, apprenticeships, or employment in the sports, fitness, and coaching industry.

Entry Requirements

A minimum of four Grade 4s at GCSE
*One of these must be in English Language or Maths
*The minimum accepted grade for English Language/Maths is Grade 3

Course Progression

Completing this course opens up a wide range of exciting opportunities. Many students go on to higher education, including the Level 4 HTQ in Community Coaching for England, or a degree level courses (with a foundation year) in sport coaching, physical education, or sport development. Others move straight into the workforce, taking on roles such as sports coach, assistant coach, or other positions within the sport and leisure industry. With the practical coaching experience, leadership skills, and real-world knowledge gained throughout the course, you'll be well-prepared to succeed in whichever path you choose.
